yass valley council

the country the people

STATEMENT OF
	ENVIRONMENTAL EFFECTS
	s & additions), outbuildings and home activities
<ul> <li>Information for the applicant</li> <li>This form may be used to outline the likely environment</li> <li>Once completed, submit this form to Yass Valley Council</li> </ul>	ntal impacts of a development application. cil with your development application through the NSW Planning Portal.
Part A. Context and setting
Does the proposal fit in with the locality?
□ No
How? For example, is it a single-storey extension in a	neighbourhood dominated by single-storey houses?
Part B. Neighbourhood impact
Will the proposal overshadow neighbouring dwelling	s? 🗆 Yes
Will the proposal impact on privacy on neighbouring	dwellings? 🗌 Yes
If no, why is this? For example, although two-storey in design, the proposal does not propose windows that directly face into living areas or private open space of neighbouring properties.
Will the proposal result in an increase noise?	S
	)
If no, why is this? For example, use is for dwelling onl	у.
Part C. Access
Is access going to be retained?	'es
1	10
If no, will new or additional access be required? $\Box$ Y	'es
1	10

How? What changes will be made? For example, this could be a proposed vehicle kerb crossing with an existing one close off.

Part D. Waste and servicing
How will builders waste from construction be disposed of?
How will effluent be disposed?	□ Sewer mains
	On-site disposal
If on-site disposal was ticked, please submit details on the type of system and soil assessment report with your development application through the NSW Planning Portal.
	□ Street gutter
How will stormwater be disposed?	□ Storm water mains
	□ Other:
	Council service
How is household waste disposed?	Private service
If a private service, please submit details on the type of waste produced, location, frequency of collection and size of waste containers with your development application through the NSW Planning Portal.
Is the site serviced with power and telephone services? $\Box$	Yes
	No
If no, how will the site be serviced with power and telephone	services?
Part E. Environmental impacts
How will on-site erosion be controlled?
Does the proposal include excavation?   Yes
□ No
If yes, to what depth (In metres)?
Does the proposal include removal of vegetation or native ha	bitat? 🗌 Yes
	□ No

If yes, how much of and what species is proposed to be removed?
Is the subject allotment in a	_
		No
If yes, please submit documentation demonstrating compliance with the Biodiversity Conservation Act 2016 with your development application through the NSW Planning Portal.
Is the development considered to be environmentally sustainable?			□ Yes
(A BASIX certificate must be provided where		e required)	□ No
Please explain why/why not the proposal is considered to be environmentally sustainable
Part F. Natural Hazards
Is the site bushfire prone?	□ Yes
	□ No
If yes, please provide a bush	nfire assessment	with your development	application through the NSW Planning Portal.
Is the site flood prone?	🗆 Yes
	🗆 No
If yes, please ensure you have consulted Council on the flood levels of the site and have indicated the existing ground levels and finished floor levels on the site and floor plan/s.
Part G. Heritage
Is the site in a heritage cons	ervation area?	□ Yes
0
Is it a heritage listed item?		□ Yes
Is it sited next to a heritage	listed item?	□ Yes
is it sited next to a heritage
If yes has been answered to any of the above, please explain how the proposal has been designed to not impact on the heritage significance of the heritage item or the Heritage Conservation Area. For example, using like for like materials.

Part H. Home Business and Industries
What is the proposed activity?
What is the total area occupied by the propo	sed activity?
Is the area occupied by the activity more than	n 10%of the floor area of the building? 🛛 Yes
	□ No
What is the number of employees?
If the activity is carried out within a dwelling,	, how many residents will be employed?
Will there be sales of goods and materials?	□ Yes
If yes, will these be produced on site?	□ Yes
What are the proposed hours of operation?	Monday – Friday
	Saturday
	Sunday & Public Holidays
Will customer's need to come to the site?	□ Yes
	□ No
If yes to the above, how often?
Will this be by appointment?
□ No
How many car spaces have been provided (P	lease indicate this on the site plan)?
Will there be any deliveries of goods?	es
N	0
If yes to the above, how often and what type	of vehicle will be used?
Will there be any noise generated from the a	activity (E.g. machinery)? 🛛 Yes
	□ No
If yes to the above, please describe the noise	e generating equipment and provide specifications including noise levels.

Will non-domestic waste be generated (E.g. paints or oils)? 🛛 Yes
If yes to the above, how will these be disposed of?
Will there be any food preparation on-site? 🛛 Yes
If yes to the above, please indicate what will be involved and how you have satisfied New South Wales Health Guidelines and Council requirements.
Will there be any skin penetration (E.g. Tattoo)? 🛛 🗌 Yes
If yes to the above, please indicate what will be involved and how you have satisfied New South Wales Health Guidelines and Council requirements
Part I. Applicant's Signature
Name
Signature Member Lumber
Date